

Saline Lands Exchange Authority -

Land at the western edge of the Delta is subject to higher water salinity levels because of the proximity to San Francisco Bay.

Controlling salinity is a major task for state and federal agencies